The Sisters Pick
Small Great Things

Ruth Jefferson is a labor and delivery nurse at a Connecticut hospital with more than twenty years' experience. During her shift, Ruth begins a routine checkup on a newborn, only to be told a few minutes later that she's been reassigned to another patient. The parents are white supremacists and don't want Ruth, who is African American, to touch their child. The hospital complies with their request, but the next day, the baby goes into cardiac distress while Ruth is alone in the nursery. Does she obey orders or does she intervene? (Ballantine Books, $28.99)

Shelbyville Writers Group

The group meets regularly on the last Monday night of the month at 7 p.m. in the Carnegie wing at the library. Our next meeting will be on Monday, November 28. We will not meet in December. Call Carolyn for more information. (317-392-2270).
